

ARTSJUNKTION

Celebrating over 30 years of reuse!

Hours of Operation

TUESDAYS & THURSDAYS

10:30 am to 1:30 pm

2:30 pm to 5:30 pm

Ossington/Old Orchard

Public School, 380

Ossington Avenue

(Just south of College Street, entrance at rear of parking lot on north side of building. Walk down truck ramp to double doors.)

Schools can also donate good reusable items from locker clean-outs, wood shops, etc. Box and send through Board mail to ArtsJunktion, SW.

Questions?

Contact Eileen Orr at eileen.orr@tdsb.on.ca or 416.393.0894.

ARTSJUNKTION is a depot for receiving and distributing donated materials and supplies to be used in educational and creative programs within the Toronto District School Board—in the classroom; artistic in-school creations; curriculum projects; daycare and parenting centres; and concurrent, after school, and seniors' programs.

ARTSJUNKTION solicits and collects materials from hundreds of companies and individuals in Toronto and surrounding areas.

ARTSJUNKTION's stock changes constantly but usually includes:

- ♦ Binders—all sizes
- ♦ Paper circles, strips, and offcuts
- ♦ Letter and legal hanging file folders
- ♦ Single wallpaper rolls, wallpaper books, wallpaper borders
- ♦ Envelopes
- ♦ Assorted fun fur pieces
- ♦ Nylon flag material
- ♦ Architectural and interior design samples
- ♦ Cardboard tubes (various dimensions)
- ♦ Film tubs and reels
- ♦ Cardboard or plastic thread cones
- ♦ Upholstery samples, fabric scraps
- ♦ Matboard
- ♦ Foamcore and gatorboard offcuts
- ♦ Empty boxes
- ♦ Plastic bottles
- ♦ Metal and plastic lids
- ♦ Wood pieces
- ♦ Foam circles and gaskets
- ♦ Polystyrene packing blocks
- ♦ Mediacom paper (3 1/2' x 4 1/2')
- ♦ National Geographic magazines
- ♦ Canadian Geographic magazines
- ♦ Sonotubes (18" and 24" in diameter)
- ♦ Plexiglass and plastic offcuts

