TDSB Update	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Continuing implementation of Full-Day Kindergarten with Phase Four starting in September 2013; full implementation by September 2014. ▪ FDK Before-and-After School Programs going from 64 this year to approximately 140 schools next year (this includes the programs from last year that are continuing); ▪ The next steps includes space surveys for licensing and leases; working with other TDSB departments and city to try and make process more streamline than last year; for TDSB this includes submitting space surveys by scanning and emailing. ▪ Toronto Children's Services shared that information on the new licensing flow chart at the recent district meetings.
George Brown, Early Years Programming, Patricia Chorney, Sue Feltoe, Nelson Hillier	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Patricia Chorney shared some overview comments regarding George Brown's Early Childhood Education program. She shared samples for assessment tools and posters to promote outcomes. They also have a web-based application that allows for the sharing of recorded observations and achievements between child care and family. ▪ A video presentation was shown to illustrate the Observation Tool for teachers and practitioners who are involved in the classroom support and play-based strategies for Early Years Learning. The Ministry has an Early Years Framework for the entire province of Ontario. ▪ Patricia's team at George Brown College used an Innovation Grant to develop technologies and

and Information Sharing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • City of Toronto: Time for Action document addresses middle childhood programs and partnerships with school. The document will go to City Council in June. There are still issues with funding, newcomer accessibility, and arranging for space. Programming improves children's well-being, equity, access. About 54% of children spend their time in after-school programs and parents would like to have this instead of having their children at home. • Conference in November 2013 in Toronto at the BMO Centre - RAISING THE BAR - Key note speaker: Diana Longboat's involvement in Early learning research and practice. Theme: SHARED PRACTICES across the sectors and cultures. • TDSB Early Years department is working with Native Family Child Services of Toronto on an FDK program at Eastview PS.
Early Years Advisory Committee Future Meetings	There was discussion as to whether the meetings should remain on Friday morning's as it did not work for at least one member. The option of rotating days was mentioned as well. It was determined that since attendance has been quite good on Fridays, that it would remain on that day. Early Years Advisory Committee Future Meetings in 2013-2014: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Friday, 27 September 2013 • Friday, 22 November 2013 • Friday, 21 February 2014 • Friday, 16 May 2014. These new dates were approved by the group at the meeting.
