

Correctional Officer Career Information Session

Careers and volunteer opportunities in correctional services are diverse and exciting, and we take pride in making a difference in the lives of those under our custody and supervision, as well as protecting the safety of our communities.

Take the opportunity to network and talk to recruiters directly to gain insight into the recruitment process. Ask your career questions, receive advice and get the tools and resources you'll need to help you in your job search.

Join us at our next information session on:
