

Smart Start

Want to work in Customer Service or Food Services?

Want to work in Customer Service or Food Services?

The Smart Start Program will teach you everything you need to successfully get a job and keep a job.

Training includes:

- Employment Skills Training
- Personal Career Assessment
- Life Skills Training
- Job Retention Training including communication and problem solving skills
- Industry-tailored and innovative Job Search Training
- Job Coaching
- Motivation and empowerment

Industry Specific Certification including:

- Proton Food Handling Certification
- Smart Serve Certification
- CPR/First Aid Certification
- Customer Service Certification
- WHMIS Certification

Smart Start is delivered at locations throughout York Region

Call for details and to reserve your spot.

1-866-256-0861

Smart Start is delivered at no cost to unemployed residents of York Region.

smartstart@jobskills.org
jobskills.org/smartstart

Delivered by:

Funded through The Regional Municipality of York's Community Investments