

Next-Steps Employment Centre - Riverdale

Presents:

Do you want to start your own small business?

Are you in need of training or certification to increase your chances to find employment, but lack the funds you need to get started?

ACCESS Community Capital Fund (ACCESS) is a registered charity that provides affordable mini-microloans of up to $1,000 to individuals who want to start a small business as well as obtain training/certification to improve their chances of employment, but have difficulties obtaining a loan from banks due to lack of collateral or good credit history.

Register to attend this free and interactive info session to learn more about ACCESS's:

- Loan program and supports;
- Application requirements and eligibility criteria;
- Loan review and evaluation process;
- Loan terms and conditions.
