

Jarvis CI
 495 Jarvis Street
 Toronto, ON
 M4Y 2G8

Grades 9-12

Vision	"Nil Decet Invita Minerva" means "Nothing is proper without Minerva's approval"
Total Number of Students	1000+
Highlights	Jarvis CI is the first public high school in Toronto, founded in 1807. At Jarvis, students will make friends from over 80 countries of origin, all integrated into one unified community. As a school situated in the heart of the city, students will find it easily accessible by bus and subway, and the reasons to stay for extra-curricular activities after school are plentiful. During high school extra-curricular provide enriching opportunities for students to learn new skills, meet friends, pursue interests and help to balance the demands of academics.
ESL Support	Yes
Support for International Students	School Student Services and TDSB Centrally Assigned Guidance Counsellors will help students with all academic or personal problems.
Specialized Programs	We offer strong academic programs in English, Business, International Languages including Latin, Mandarin and Spanish, Math, Science and Social Science, etc.
Clubs and Activities	Art club, biology club and competition, badminton, business, Canadian Math Olympiad, chess, computer, concert band, debating, fashion show, jazz band, martial arts, math club, multicultural club, orchestra, peer tutoring, senior string ensemble, student council, web design, and many more
Sports	Badminton, baseball, basketball, cricket, cross country hockey, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, ultimate Frisbee, volleyball, etc.
Academic Year	Non-semestered with intake in September not suitable for senior students
School Website	For more information, visit: http://schools.tdsb.on.ca/jarvisci/

