Applications are due for the second deadline of March 24th. First deadline was January 13th. Would like to get the information of the program out to as many as possible. Current have two students in program who identify as Indigenous. • Pilot program for grades 5-8 to allow then to go onto U of T campus to become comfortable being on a University campus. Students will be offered ½ day information and ½ day hands-on learning in the Bio-Material & Bio-Medical fields. Arthur: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Medicine Youth Summer Program has been running for 8 years. Last year they had 10 Indigenous students participating in the program. Practical examples and 4th year science experiments will be conducted with the students in the program. There are two ways to obtain a scholarship for the program – General application and Self identifying Indigenous application. 	TDSB trustee- Deferred

Follow-up/Action Items: -Motion: Modifying the Land Acknowledgment -Motion: National Aboriginal Day	Dr. Duke Redbird: Motion; Modifying the Land Acknowledgment Duke offered his perspectives about the history of European settlers and Indigenous women. He indicated that all nations who have been mentioned in the past should be recognized today as we all share a covenant to take care of and love the land. Duke recommends that the Land Acknowledgment carries on as it stands for the remainder of the school year. It should be introduced in the spirit of the 150+ year's celebration of confederation. Marilyn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Will share this information with the TYRMC. Joseph: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The letter from the Toronto & York Region Métis Council was not given to the Métis Nation. • Why are we giving this letter so much weight? • It now affects the Métis Council and will be taken back to them. Dawn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Concurs with Duke, keeping the Acknowledgment the same for this school year and will take this information back to the Haudenosaunee people. 	The ACAC recommends the following; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • That TDSB will remain with the current wording of the Land Acknowledgement and that further consultation and dialogue occur with First Nations, Métis and Inuit
