	Budget 2016-2017 end of year	PIAC's 2018-19 budget has a short fall this year. The Budget WG highlighted that budget is very tight to cover childminding, bussing costs for the conference and the monthly catering for PIAC meetings. PIAC's PRO Grant application status is not known. Staff Feedback PIAC should consider collaborating with the Board to do one conference in the fall as a feasible option. Parent engagement is also done via schools, learning centres and networks have events for parents. Discussion The Board's conference in spring focusses on special education and mental health and don't offer similar workshops as offered at PIAC conference on parent involvement and school council based topics. PIAC should consider presentations at ward level meeting to connect with schools and parents directly. Delivery methods such as webinars should be considered.	Action:
