ACCESS TO SERVICE FORM

www.tdsb.on.ca/AboriginalEducation

The Toronto District School Board Aboriginal Education Centre offers a range of services for First Nations, Métis, Inuit students and their families, utilizing a wholistic approach to enhance their overall achievement.

The Student Support Team engages collaboratively with students and staff to promote awareness and understanding of shared history, issues, and relationships between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal peoples.

Team Members include

- A Child and Youth Counsellor
- A Social Worker
- A Student Success Teacher

The Team

- creates places of belonging collaboratively with individual teachers and student support teams
- provides individual and group support for students
- offers guidance (transition elementary to secondary to post-secondary)
- assesses and recommends appropriate curriculum connections and resources
- offers family advocacy and connection to resources
- provides health and wellness

Together we are committed to ensuring the success of all First Nations, Métis, Inuit students.

By completing the Access/Consent to Service form on the following page you are providing the named student an opportunity to get connected with the TDSB Aboriginal Education Centre.

After you submit the Access/Consent to Service form, a member of the Aboriginal Education team will contact you to follow up and discuss next steps.

Please detach the form on the right and send. Options
