

INDIGENOUS STUDENT SUMMER LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

The Indigenous Student Summer Leadership Program provides First Nation, Métis and Inuit students leadership opportunities working with Indigenous mentors throughout the month of July.

This is a paid opportunity for First Nation, Métis and Inuit students who are 16 to 20 years of age. Students will:

- Earn 1 co-op credit, with the opportunity to also take part in Credit Recovery.
- Receive additional wrap around support from Indigenous Graduation Coaches.
- Gain invaluable work experience through placements that include: Nikibii Dawadinna Giigwag, The Toronto Zoo, TTC (Equity, Communications and Legal Departments), Scotiabank, Evergreen Brickworks, etc.

Students can express interest in ISSLP by completing the google form, an Indigenous Graduation Coach will be in contact to follow up.

For any additional questions please contact emily.wadsworth@tdsb.on.ca

