The Toronto District School Board Urban Indigenous Education Centre offers a range of services for First Nations, Métis, Inuit students and their families. It utilizes a wholistic approach to enhance Indigenous students' overall well-being and achievement.

The Student Success Team engages collaboratively with students and staff to ensure Indigenous student well-being and success.

Team Members:

- Child and Youth Counsellor
- Social Worker
- Student Success Teacher
- Culture and Traditions Itinerant Instructor
- Indigenous Student Engagement Teacher

The team:

- Collaborates with individual school leaders, teachers and support staff to create places of belonging for Indigenous students
- Provides individual and group support for students
- Offers guidance (transition to elementary to secondary to postsecondary)
- Assesses and recommends appropriate curriculum and community connections and resources
- Offers family advocacy and connections to resources
- Provides health and wellness support
- Promotes awareness and understanding of unique and shared history, concerns and relationships between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples

By completing the Access/Consent to Service form on the following pages, you are providing the named student an opportunity to connect with the TDSB Urban Indigenous Education Centre.

After you submit the Access/Consent to Service form, a member of the Urban Indigenous Education Centre Student Support Team will contact you to arrange for a meeting and discuss next steps.

Please send the form via email to antonino.giambrone@tdsb.on.ca or through Interoffice mail: TDSB Urban Indigenous Education Centre, 16 Phin (SW42)
