School Building in Toronto: Where Are We Now?

Thursday, May 12, 2022 from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm

As communities continue to grow and intensify, accommodation pressures continue to emerge at local public schools when faced with increasing enrolment. Information on updated enrolment and demographic information and the impact of residential intensification on local schools will be shared. Staff will speak to how the studies in the Board's Long-Term Program and Accommodation Strategy and Secondary School Review will mitigate these challenges and the trustees will speak to our advocacy to the provincial government to address our capital needs. With special guests Andrew Gowdy, System Planning Officer and Daniel Castaldo, Senior Manager, Planning.
