K-12 Itinerant Native Languages Teacher
Indigenous Education
0.5 Position

(0.5 year term – 10-month position)

The Toronto District School Board adheres to equitable hiring, employment, and promotion practices. Individuals of First Nations, Métis and Inuit background are strongly encouraged to apply.

The Toronto District School Board (TDSB) invites applications from permanent TDSB Elementary and Secondary Teachers for the position of K - 12 Itinerant Native Languages Teacher at multiple locations.

This position will be filled commencing February 1, 2024 to June 30, 2024, subject to restructuring, reorganization or possible renewal. The goal of the Indigenous Languages Program is to generate an education delivery model that will improve educational outcomes for Indigenous students. The program model allows students to work at their own pace with individualized instruction in a non-competitive environment. The program's foundation and success are based on traditional practices while offering "wrap around" services that meet the needs of Indigenous students and foster positive Indigenous identity, academic success, and overall well-being.

The goal of the Indigenous Native Languages Program in the TDSB is to focus on the acquisition of Ojibwe (Anishnaabemowin) language skills.

The successful candidate will report to the Centrally Assigned Principal/Vice-Principal, Indigenous Education at the Urban Indigenous Education Centre.

Summary of Duties:

- Provide leadership in fostering equity and inclusiveness in the development and implementation of programs and services;
- Provide culturally relevant and culturally safe learning environments and instruction based on students' learning styles, strengths and needs;
- Apply effective Indigenous Education teaching/learning and assessment strategies and practices;
- Perform initial and on-going assessments to support and monitor the success of Indigenous students;
- Support the process of collecting and interpreting student success data to enable staff to make informed decisions about programming for First Nations, Métis and Inuit students;
- Provide culturally relevant learning instruction based on students' learning styles, strengths and needs;
- Mentor and work collaboratively with other staff to effectively adapt and support the classroom program and instruction for First Nations, Métis and Inuit students;
- Support and coordinate on-going implementation of program initiatives and development of best practices in Indigenous Education;
- Assist in the coordination of access for students to support and interventions;
- Provide programming and language acquisition skills related to the Ojibwe (Anishnaabemowin) language; and
- Other duties as assigned.

Qualifications and Skills:

- Ontario College of Teachers' Certificate of Qualifications;
- Native Languages; Ojibwe (Anishnaabemowin) fluency required; College of Teachers Certification in the subject is preferred;
- Knowledge and understanding of current issues and research pertaining to Indigenous Education;
- A well-informed understanding of the histories of First Nations, Métis and Inuit peoples in Canada;
- A strong familiarity with the Truth and Reconciliation Commission Calls to Action as they relate to student achievement and well-being, as well as community expectations;
- An ability to incorporate cultural programming and Elders would be considered an asset;
- Demonstrated ability to take actions that address Anti-Indigenous Racism, Anti-Black-Racism, Antisemitism, Islamophobia and Anti-Asian Racism, among others, while promoting Equity and demonstrating Anti-Oppressive pedagogy;
- Proven ability in promoting equitable practices that value inclusiveness and diversity;
- Demonstrated ability to work collaboratively as part of a team;
- Experience delivering staff development workshops/in-service;
- Demonstrated commitment to maintaining a learning/working environment that actively promotes and supports human rights;
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills;
- Proven strengths in problem-solving and adapting to change; and
- Competency in computer skills and electronic communication.

Information for Candidates:

1. The successful candidate's salary will be in accordance with the teacher's salary grid.
2. The successful candidate's salary will be commensurate with the candidate's placement on the teachers' salary grid plus a Supplemental Expense Allowance Tier 1 currently $1,750.00.
3. Candidates who are selected for an interview will be notified as soon as possible after the closing date.
4. At the end of the term, the successful candidate will either apply for a central position or return to his/her school, subject to staffing/surplus/placement procedures.
