

WHMIS 2015 Online is based on the current 2015 legislation and meets the legislated requirement for general WHMIS training. Employers must also provide workplace-specific training and instruction for each of the hazardous products in the workplace.

Duration

On average, the course will take between 12 – 24 hours to complete.

Instructor

This course is done entirely online

Completion Requirements

This course is done at your own pace. Pick up where you left off throughout course.

Certification

Canadian Red Cross WHMIS Training - Recognised Canada-wide

Recertification

This course does NOT have a recertification program.

Some Course Content

Understand the essential role WHMIS plays in protecting the health and safety of Canadian workers
Identify the WHMIS responsibilities of suppliers, employers, and workers
Know the workplace requirements related to the use of supplier labels and workplace labels, and how to locate and interpret the information found on these labels
Recognize the WHMIS pictograms and the types of hazard each represents
Recognize the Safety Data Sheet (SDS) as a source of comprehensive information about a hazardous chemical in the workplace and know how to locate various types of information when reading an SDS

Take-Home Materials

Online access to all course modules during and after completion of the course.

WHMIS ONLINE TRAINING - NEXT-STEPS EMPLOYMENT CENTRE
Courses are being offered through First Aid Care (www.firstaidcare.ca)
For more information, please contact your Employment Advisor at Next-Steps Employment Centre OR contact our front desk at 416-396-2313. Or by e-mail at nsec-riverdale@tdsb.on.ca

**PLEASE CONNECT WITH YOUR EMPLOYMENT ADVISOR FOR A REFERRAL AND SEE IF YOU QUALIFY FOR CLIENT SUPPORT REIMBURSEMENT FOR THIS TRAINING COST**